I purchased this book for a friend who lives in a nursing home. He is a movie buff, and he totally loves this book! It contains 100 questions about quotes from various movies, and you need to identify the name of the movie from which the quote is taken, or you need to complete the quote, or you need to identify the actor or character who delivered the quote. My friend enjoyed playing this game with me during our weekly visits. However, he misplaced the book, so I had to order another one. It took a very long time for this second book to arrive. The first book came directly from Amazon, but the second order came from another source (through Amazon), which extended the shipment time considerably.
